Atlanta GA - (July 24) This year UNCF continues to promote its new campaign "Better Futures" during which the "A Mind Is" Giving Society of Atlanta held an "Atlanta University Center New Member Presidents Welcome Reception" on July 21, 2015 at The Atlanta Olive Oil Company at 1133 Huff Road, in Atlanta GA.

During the event, comprised of individual thought leaders in education, Chairpersons Dr. William and Verna Cleveland, and co-chairs Dr. Tiffany Mitchell and the Honorable Cesar Mitchell provided a stunning atmosphere and the opportunity for the occasion. Keynote speaker Juanita Powell Baranco gave an inspirational and challenging talk, followed by UNCF Scholar testimonies from Clark Atlanta University's Aaron Chambers and the Interdenominational Theological Center's (ITC) Janice Alford.

Final remarks of intellect and vision came from Ronald A. Johnson PhD. the fourth President of Clark Atlanta University, followed by a thought provoking mini sermon from The Reverend Edward L. Wheeler, PhD., 10th President of ITC.

The United Negro College Fund's "A Mind Is" Giving Society is a national recognition program to honor our most dedicated individual supporters who give annually. The dual purpose of the Society is to recognize and honor the support of its individual donors in Atlanta and widen the constituency of UNCF investors.
