Iconic Santa Monica Oceanfront Restaurant Offers Beach-Chic Design, Coastal Cuisine, and Inventive Wine List

1 Pico restaurant at Shutters on the Beach is situated on a prime coastal stretch of the famed Santa Monica beach with majestic views across the boardwalk and out to the Pacific Ocean. Designed by Michael S. Smith, 1 Pico continues its presence as a favorite dining destination – with unmatched views – in Los Angeles. Shutters' Managing Chef Robert Kirchoff and 1 Pico's Executive Chef Isaac Gamboa produce a market-fresh menu that showcases seasonal Southern California ingredients and vibrant seafood indicative of the restaurant's oceanfront location, brought together by a culinary finesse that reflects the restaurant's sophistication.

Menu highlights include appetizers such as Pan-Seared Calamari with cherry tomato, garlic, basil, lemon, and arugula and Grilled Octopus and Pork Belly with raw artichoke salad, arugula, and black garlic and seafood dishes such as Fettucine with Pacific lobster, bloomsdale spinach, and chanterelles and Tortellini with ricotta, roasted tomatoes, and basil. Meat and steak entrees include Kurobuta Pork Chop with farro, Hen of the Woods mushrooms, sage, and hazelnut brown butter. To complement the entrees, 1 Pico offers a selection of seasonal vegetables, along with housemade desserts and specialty cocktails.

Complementing the cuisine and decor, Shutters General Manager Gregory Day and longtime friend and Master Sommelier Peter Neptune created an innovative and accessible wine program that Wine Spectator has consecutively recognized with their illustrious Award of Excellence since 2009. A 31-year industry veteran, Neptune is one of very few individuals in North America to hold the wine industry's most prestigious title of Master Sommelier. Together, Neptune and Day created a wine list that is rich in content, not in cost that offers guests the opportunity to refine their tastes and palates in a playful way.

1 Pico is open lunch and dinner and offers a Sunday brunch.
